[Numb. 1956.] MONDAY, JUNE 14, 1773.

CHARLES-TOWN: Printed by T. POWELL & Co. at the Printing-Office near the EXCHANGE.

☞ T. POWELL & Co. preſent their moſt grateful Reſpects to the Encouragers of this Gazette, and beg Leave to acquaint them, that ONE Year is NOW DUE; and, as their ſmall Demands lie in ſo many different Hands, that, unleſs they are alſo ſupported, by regular annual Payments, it will be impoſſible to continue their Buſineſs on the Plan of PUBLIC UTILITY—the Expence and Trouble attending which are great. They therefore hope, that their Subſcribers, as well in the Country as in Town, will make, or order, immediate Payment, and render any further Applications to them unneceſſary.

Mr. POWELL,

THE following is an Account of the chief Articles imported here from Africa, the Weſt-Indies, and North-America; not including ſuch for which it has been inconvenient to pay the Country Duties, or of which no Entries are made, through Forgetfulneſs. The Publication thereof in your Gazette, may be of ſome Uſe, and the Obſervations that could be made thereon, of more. I therefore flatter myſelf you will not refuſe it a Place in your next Paper, and oblige

A CONSTANT READER.

And, Persons desirous of settling their yearly Business expeditiously, by sending their Books to him, may have it done; the different Accounts drawn out, and the Monies collected, or otherwise settled, in the most suitable Manner.

Money borrowed and lent at Interest,
Without Expence to the LENDER, who will be entitled to Interest for his Money, from the Day he gives Notice to him, of having it to LET; and, such as desire it, may have their Interest applied for as it becomes due, without any Expence.

For SALE privately,
The following Property of BENJAMIN GUERARD,
Which he is desirous of SELLING,
To have his Interest in one Place, viz.

A Very valuable Tract of 1000 Acres of Land, situate in Prince William's Parish, between Combahee and Port-Royal Ferries, having on it a Sufficiency of choice high Land for two profitable Indico Plantations; between which Two Hundred and Fifty Barrels of Rice may be made in a Year, as Ground to yield that Quantity of Barrels can be flowed with Water:—No Part of it was ever planted, but Sixty or Eighty Acres are cleared to begin one Plantation; FRESH and NEW, and therefore the BETTER and CHEAPER. It is esteemed as fine a Tract for its Size as most in the Province, the up Land being high, so that Land Floods can never hurt the Crops of Indico and Corn thereon planted:——The Purchaser, from the Red-Oak Trees that must unavoidably come down, in order to his making his Fields, may strip a vast Number of Cords of Bark.

So complete a Tract as this, and of the like Distance from Charles-Town, is very rarely to be found for Sale; which would require no Recommendation, if a View by every one in Want of such could be taken of it, and which, considering the high Price of good Lands, will be sold cheap.——It pays no Quit-Rents, being Part of the Rich Lands included in Thomas Lowndes's Grant; and, as 'tis too late in the Season to prepare for Planting for the ensuing Crop, the Purchaser's Bond shall not carry Interest 'till Six Months from the Date are elapsed.

A delightful RETREAT,
Eight Miles by Land or Water from Town, known to be as well situated for Pleasantness and Agreeableness of Prospect as most Seats in the Province; on which, open to several Parts of that beautiful River, Ashley-River, stands an elegant House, with handsome commodious Offices.

With which will be SOLD,
The large Quantity of very genteel Furniture
Now in the said House.

A very easy and desirable Distance for a Carriage and Four or Six Horses, as a Gentleman may come to his Business in Town in the Morning, and return to his Family in the Evening.——The Inconvenience of not having such a Place for a Family, is at all Times great, and much more so, when contagious Disorders rage in the Metropolis, or those few Months in the Year arrive, so destructive to Infants kept in Town.

It contains Three Hundred Acres of Land, and is allowed to have the best Pasture in the Neighbourhood (having kept all the Cattle thereabouts in good Condition for several Years past) of which Two are now inclosed with a strong new Fence, as is also a Meadow for making Hay; has great Plenty of Fencing and Fire-Wood Trees, and, by a Gentleman having a Turn that Way, may be made a Place of some Profit as well as Pleasure, as good Crops of Corn have been made on it, and one Year, when planted with that Grain, Sixty Barrels of Rice; but what can be more Profitable to grow on it than the Grass it luxuriantly bears, as HAY (made with a very few Hands) is an Article of so great Demand in Town, and never sells for less than Ten Pounds per Thousand Weight, although often near One-Third Brambles.——It may be viewed at any Time.

His Two HOUSES in Town;
The one on the Corner of the Bay, near the Exchange, and the other adjoining, in Broad-Street, which (and that very low) rent for £. 960 per Annum, and are so advantageously situated for Trade, as will never be untenated;—besides which Advantage, it is well known these Houses were not built as those which are intended to be Lett, no Cost nor Pains being spared in getting the Materials the best of their Kind, which were put together in the most faithful and neat Manner:—The Wood Materials are of the best of Yellow Pine and Black Cypress, and the Mortar made of Fresh-Water River Gravel, so strong a Cement as that none of the Tiles in the Great Hurricane 1752, were blown off, whilst the Roofs of most of the Houses tiled or slated were entirely uncovered thereby.

It has been often desired that the Corner House should be made a COFFEE-HOUSE,—£. 1050 a Year Rent will be insured, but there is no Doubt that £. 1100 can be got for them, as the Rents were never increased since the Building of the Exchange, as should be.—The Terms to the Purchasers shall be made as convenient as they can desire.——Please to apply to

JACOB VALK.

CHARLES-TOWN, JUNE 14.

WE have the Pleasure to inform the Public, that the Fishery, which is of so much Consequence to this Town, and hath been too long neglected, is now likely to be carried on with Spirit, and to as great an Extent as in any Port in America, by white Men; Capt. James Giles, a Person of great Skill and Industry in that Business, having engaged in it, as well as Mr. Pharaoh, and several others; who, it is hoped, will meet with sufficient Encouragement from the Inhabitants, to induce them to persevere in and improve it.—There is no Doubt, that a very valuable Fishery, for Exportation, might also be established in this Province, if we were only allowed the Liberty some of our Northern Neighbours enjoy, of importing Portugal Salt, without which it cannot be attempted.

Even now the Number of Negro Slaves imported the present Year, falls short 3066 of what were imported in the Year 1765—and, although not less than 3514 have arrived here since the 1st of May, the Sales have been well kept up, and there are not many on Hand, besides the three Cargoes which are to be exposed for Sale on the 15th, 17th, and 23d Instant.

Last Wednesday we received a certain Account of the happy Conclusion of the Congress which was opened on the First Instant at Augusta, where every Thing was conducted and terminated to the entire Satisfaction of all Parties. The Body of Land ceded by the Cherokee and Creek Indians, is said to contain Four Millions and Three Hundred Thousand Acres. We will not presume to say, that the Particulars which have come to our Hands, are so correct, as what will probably be communicated to the Public through the Channel of Mr. WELLS's Gazette, His Majesty's Superintendant being soon expected in Town.

"Lately arrived in Town, a Gentleman who, though he was "not born or bred in Scotland, nor has received any University "Education, proposes to lay Waste the whole Materia Medica, "and raise a new System upon its Ruins. There are no Dis- "orders incident to Human Nature (except the Gravel, Stone, "and Dropsy) for which he has not an infallible Remedy—the "Materials taken from the Neighbourhood of George-Town "—no Bleeding, Blistering, Purging, or Vomiting."

Last Wednesday arrived here, His Majesty's Sloop Tamar, commanded by Capt. John Cross, appointed to the North-Carolina Station.

His Majesty's Frigate Lizard, Charles Inglis, Esq; Commander, which arrived here last Monday, is appointed to this Station.

On Saturday last put in here, in Want of Water and Provisions, the Snow Hope, of and for London, George Holmes, Master, out 58 Days from the Bay of Honduras. On the 18th of May off the West End of Cuba, he spoke with a Sloop belonging to Rhode-Island, out 9 Days from Jamaica, and bound for Georgia. May 26th, got on Shore, beat over the Coloradoes in the Night, and grounded upon a soft Ooze Bank, whereon he lay 5 Days: In that Time, was boarded by several Spaniards, who behaved exceedingly civil, and though they gave Capt. Holmes no Assistance, instructed him in the best Way to get his Vessel out: They told him, that there was an English Sloop ashore on Cape Antonio. Same Day, spoke with a Scooner going to the Havannah, that had been taken in a clandestine Trade, with Rum and Sugars. June 7th, spoke with the Ship Lark, out 30 Days from the Bay, bound for Liverpoole, in the Gulph of Florida, Capt. Powell, Master; who informed him, that Capt. Turner, in the Ship Sally, having sprung a Leak, had put back into the Bay. June 9th, spoke with the Ship Tryal, David Cargil, Master, out 16 Days from Jamaica, bound for Bristol, who informed him, that several Ships were lost, but could not tell their Names, viz. one on the Membro Rock, in the Gulph, one on the Jordaines, and one near the Caimanoes.

The Le Despencer Packet-Boat, Capt. Pond, Wind and Weather permitting, sails for Falmouth To-morrow.

Price of Rice 70*s.* per 100lb. and so scarce, that no European Vessel can load therewith before the new Crop in December next.—Quantity shipped from this Port since the 1st of November last 105,441 Tierces.

RICHARD MORGAN,

BOOT and SHOE-MAKER,

In the House formerly the Old Goal, in KING-STREET,

RETURNS his sincere Thanks to the Public for the great Encouragement he has received since his Arrival in this Province, and begs Leave to acquaint his Friends and Customers, that he has just received a large Quantity of the best English dressed SKINS, proper for Boots and Shoes, which he has been induced to import, in order to supply his Customers with those Articles (as well with Regard to Leather as Workmanship) in a much better Manner than it is in the Power of any other Shoe-Maker in this Province to do. From a late LONDON PAPER.

I WAS shocked with reading in the papers, the account of Mr. Neale's death, which is there said be occasioned by a broken heart; but I cannot to help thinking of those who have suffered by the gambling spirit of Mr. Fordyce; those males and females who have thus been released from their calamities, are in a more enviable situation than those who survive. And must it not add to the misery of these survivors to find the Scotch author of all their calamities, not only enjoying the blessings of this world with impunity, but justified in his conduct by his countrymen, and rewarded with pensions and profitable employments by friends at Court?

It is notorious in the city, that a late failure is likewise owing to Scotch perfidy; the little Baronet is mourning over the wreck of his shattered fortune, and his Scotch friends and advisers, are enjoying themselves upon the rich cargo cast on shore.

How many hundreds are lamenting their thoughtless credulity, in trusting their fortune to Scotch projectors who have buried it among the Adelphi ruins?

How many thousands have suffered by Scotch avarice, and fell a sacrifice to the Scotch bank of Air?

How many millions pour out their groans, execrations and curses upon the Scotch counsels which are bringing disgrace upon our King, contempt upon our country from all powers of Europe, and are entailing slavery and poverty upon the people and their posterity?

Now let those who exclaim against national reflections consider how dear the name of a Scotchman ought to be to an ENGLISHMAN.

Advertisement Extraordinary.

STOLEN lately from a Royal Cabinet, several curious and invaluable Manuscripts, which would clear up many difficult points in history; they are supposed to have been taken by a Scotchman, as none but such have of late years had admittance at Court. There are to be found among them the following treatises:

One to prove Alexander the Great was a coward.

The second proves Julius Cæsar a Roman patriot, Brutus and Cato bribed by Pompey, and that Cicero and Catiline were hand and glove.

A third proves Demosthenes and Chatham were born dumb.

A fourth, that Cleopatra was a vestal, Lucretia a strumpet, and that Portia treated her husband with a skimington.

A fifth shows Charles the First an enemy to prerogative, James the Second the father of the Protestant Church, and King William the Third, the head of Jacobites.

A sixth represents George the Second and the late Duke of Cumberland convinced of the loyalty of the Scotch, from their conduct in the year Forty-five.

A seventh proves Lord Bute the paragon of loyalty and conjugal fidelity.

The eighth demonstrates, that the making of buttons is the most Royal amusement; that the Jacobites are the best friends to the Brunswick family; that corruption is the most wholesome nourishment to the English constitution, and that every Briton should starve but a Scotchman.

Whosoever shall bring the said manuscripts to Sawneys Dalrymple, keeper of the said Royal Cabinet, shall, if he is a Scotchman, be rewarded by a government abroad, or an equivalent pension upon the Irish establishment.

Intelligence Extraordinary.

THE grand national races will not begin till next spring: The jockies are to start from most of the great towns in England, and ride to St. Stephen's post. As jockying is allowed, 'tis thought there will be excellent sport, many thrown out of their seats, many distanced, and much money lost.

The King's coats and badges will be row'd for soon. 'Tis hoped by all honest people, that the best scalls will come in first.

Last night was murdered, at a house of ill fame, by a set of female assassins, the reputation of many virtuous ladies. Pray stop their mouths.

As the justices and parish officers in and about the metropolis (for reasons best known to themselves) do not chuse to insert the names of the unjust bakers, in order that they might be branded with infamy, a petition is to be laid before the next parliament, craving leave to erect, at the public cost, a pillory in each street wherein a baker lives; and upon conviction each baker to be put thereon, and instead of rotten eggs, to be pelted with his own light bread. The bread when broke to be given to the poor. Note, only halfpenny rolls to be thrown at them for the first offence.

Last night were interred the last remains of English hospitality; charity, benevolence, virtue, honour, honesty, and chastity, those who supported the pall, were pushed into the grave, and covered over likewise.

To be lett, and entered on immediately, on lease for life, many of them in good repair, some thousands of unmarried women: They are to be viewed every evening till they are lett at the following places, viz. Vaunhall, Mary-le-bon, Sadler's Wells, Park, &c.

Last night were taken up by the watch, and carried to the round-house nineteen pots of strong beer. They were all discharged and let out again before the justice was up.

As provisions still remain dear, we hear the city is going to fit out, at their own expence, for the public good, a large fleet of ships to bring home belly timber, vulgarly called turtle. Rare news for Old England!

This morning about ten o'clock was hanged, pursuant to its sentence, a fine fat haunch of venison. It is to hang a fortnight, and then to be eaten by the overseers of —— parish for the benefit of the poor.

A foreigner is taken up for ravishing a woman of distinction with his fiddlestick. His trial comes on next concert night.

To be disposed of to the best bidder, warranted sound wind and limb, rising sixteen, carries her head in the right place, has all her paces, is in a good condition, and able to carry any weight, a fine brown girl. The reason her present owner parts with her is, that he is going to be married, and has no further occasion for her.

pond. There was a great number of nobility assisted at the ceremony.

To all foreigners and others.——This is to give notice, that the English vulgar tongue is taught at Billingsgate, by a company of qualified fish-women, upon very reasonable terms.

This morning was married at St. Giles's church, James Tripe, Esq; carcase butcher, to Miss Beady Treacle, only daughter and heiress of the late Timothy Treacle, Esq; gingerbread-baker. After the ceremony was over, the new-married couple set out for their country seat at Marrow-Bone.

This morning a young man and woman made away with themselves in St. Clement's church. The young woman was driven to it by her own father's persuasion; and a clergyman was observed to be very busy in tying the noose hard. A reverend officiate at the Savoy chapel was transported some years ago for a similar practice.

Last night was safely delivered of twins, the celebrated Mrs. Evans, a favourite cat of Lady Love Puppy's, to the great joy of her ladyship.

Eloped at two this morning, from her nephew and guardian, Miss Charlotte Manlove, spinster, aged 74, along with Mr. Sampson Thickset, aged 18. 'Tis supposed they are gone to Scotland. Any one that will stop the parties on this side matrimony, and delivers the young lady up to her nephew, shall be handsomely rewarded.

On Sunday last a young lady, at the Court end of the town, lost every thing she had to stake, but her honour, at cards.

Last night a gentleman's house was robbed (by one who had the appearance of a gentleman) and the following goods stole out of it, viz. a young lady aged 16, a lap-dog, a monkey, a squirrel, a dormouse, a French-woman, a parrot, two large trunks of wearing apparel, a small cabinet full of jewels, watches, rings, and female trinkets, a drawer full of pomatum, powder, combs, patches, paint, lip-salve, tooth-powder and brushes, a pound of pins, and one needle without an eye. The gentleman dropt in his hasse the following things: The French-woman, lap-dog, dormouse, parrot, monkey, squirrel, and the drawers of combustibles. Stop thief!

WHEREAS, by a Petition signed by several of the Inhabitants of this Province, settled on or near the Boundary Line, between this Province and North-Carolina, by Virtue of Grants from the Governor of North-Carolina, this Day presented to me in Council, it appears, That the Proclamation issued by me, on the Nineteenth Day of June last, setting forth, That "Whereas, "by the Continuation of the Boundary Line, between this "Province and North-Carolina, which had lately been run, "in Pursuance of His MAJESTY'S INSTRUCTIONS to the "Governors of both Provinces, several Plantations which had "been settled by Virtue of Grants from the Governor of North-"Carolina, fell within this Government. IN ORDER to "preserve to the Proprietors of such Grants, the equitable "Right they had to the Lands mentioned therein, I DID, "by the Advice of His Majesty's Council, issue my Pro-"clamation; THEREBY STRICTLY FORBIDDING all the "Deputy-Surveyors of this Province, from laying any Warrant "on Lands for which Grants had been obtained in North-"Carolina: AND notifying to all Persons possessed of, or in-"titled unto, such Grants, that they might have Grants for the "same from this Government, on their producing such Grants, "without their personal Attendance at Charles-Town, provided "Application was made for the same within Twelve Months from "the Date thereof," had not been sufficiently notified to the Persons for whose Benefit it was intended; and the Time therein mentioned, for them to come and take out Grants for those Lands, will be therefore too short: I THEREFORE, taking the same into Consideration, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of His Majesty's Honourable Council, to issue this my Proclamation, hereby strictly forbidding all Deputy-Surveyors from laying any Warrants on the Land settled by Virtue of such Grants: AND FURTHER, notifying to all Persons possessed of, or intitled unto, such Grants or Conveyances, that the Time for their applying to have a Confirmation of the same, will be prolonged till the First Day of January next.

GIVEN under my Hand, and the Great Seal of the said Province, at Charles-Town, this Seventeenth Day of February, Anno Domini 1773, and in the Thirteenth Year of His Majesty's Reign.
